James E. Young, President & CEOCITIZENS TRUST BANK*Biographical Information

Mr. Young joined Citizens Trust Bank of Atlanta on February 2, 1998 as President & Chief Executive Officer as a result of the merger of the institution and DeKalb County's First Southern Bank, where he had been President and CEO since 1993. During his First Southern Bank tenure, he guided that bank's expansion by opening two new branch locations, the establishment of a holding company and the acquisition of a mortgage company. Under his leadership, First Southern bank grew from $22 million in assets to $58 million at the time of the merger. The merger of the two institutions created a financial services company with $184 million in assets and 11 Metro-Atlanta banking locations, one of the top five African-American owned commercial banks in the country.

He received his initial training in banking in 1971 in New York City as a Management Trainee with the Chase Manhattan Bank. After extensive credit training, Mr. Young became a Lending Officer in that institution in 1972. After completing lending assignments in Chase's Corporate Banking Department, he became a Vice President and Team Manager in the Bank's Credit Audit Division where he was responsible for assessing the quality of the Bank's loan portfolio worldwide. His responsibilities required him to travel to several foreign locations including: Cairo, Egypt; Taipei, Taiwan; Lagos, Nigeria; London, England; Paris, France; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and Bangkok, Thailand. He later became a Human Resources Specialist and was in charge of Chase's Equal Opportunities Program before leaving in 1989 to join City National Bank of New Jersey as Vice President -Chief Commercial Loan Officer. After working with the President of City National to successfully return that institution to sound and profitable operations, he was promoted in 1990 to Senior Vice President-General Administration & Commercial Loans.

Mr. Young, a native of Cleveland, Tennessee received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Tennessee State University in 1971.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of: The National Bankers Association, The Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, The Atlanta Action Forum, Central Atlanta Progress; The DeKalb Conventions & Visitors Bureau; The DeKalb County Pension Board; The DeKalb Medical Center; The Atlanta Neighborhood Development Partnership, C. D. Moody Construction Company; The Metro-Atlanta YMCA, and the Metro-Atlanta Boys & Girls Club. In addition he is a member of The DeKalb County Chapter of 100 Black Men of America.

He has been married for twenty-eight years to Rebecca Young, a DeKalb County Public Schools teacher. They are the parents of three sons and a daughter.
